

1, Detroit, MI.—Assistant Dave Williams represented the Kresge Company at a Junior Achievement meeting where he was presenting a trophy for outstanding assistance.—Edward Marcinik

6, Bay City, MI.—Welcome mat is out for Manager Trippensee, Assistant Miletello and Trainee Thompson.—Kay Rosebrook

7, Indianapolis, Ind.—The spring managers' meeting was held at the store and District Manager Benoit complimented everyone for the excellent appearance of the store.—Louise Barber

16, Dearborn, MI.—Three employees went to Hawaii for eight days and came back with beautiful tan.—Janet Reed

27, Livonia, MI.—The Jaycoos purchased material from the store for pajamas and play clothes for hospitalized children.—Rose Brown

28 Hosts 7 Men At Food Seminar

38, Cleveland, O.—A three-day food seminar was recently held at store 28 for seven young men from other Kresge and K mart stores.—Peggy Zela

47, Cincinnati, O.—The store provided clothing and food supplies to aid area victims of the recent tornado.

51, Lima, O.—Welcome Manager Donna Wolfe. Everyone is proud of the basic stock citation.—Doris Wildermuth

103, Jackson, MI.—Farewell to Assistant Bill Congroos who transferred to 4063, Flint. The welcome mat is out for Mike Barnes from 117, Terre Haute, Ind.—Ray Town

115, Troy, MI.—Hello to Irene Anderson, personnel manager from 353, Madison Hts. MI.—Debra Seitz

117, Terre Haute, Ind.—A warm welcome to Manager Foster from 4035, Anderson, Ind.—Joann Yorkewich

123, Southfield, MI.—Manager Allan Van Weelden held the store's third annual appreciation dinner. Entertainment was provided by Lloyd Harris and Earl Robinson and their band.—Edith Day

131, Ann Arbor, MI.—Congratulations to former trainee, Robert Simmons, now assistant at 4113, Cincinnati, O.—Shirley Crippen

133, Cincinnati, O.—Welcome to Manager Phillip McDonald and District Manager Treuter. Sad farewells go with Hazel Henry who retired after 47 years with the company.—Mary Hack

139, Newport, KY.—Ivy Ewing, Evelyn Maybrier and Vera Meyer total 101 years of Kresge service. A hearty welcome to Manager Patrick O'Brien from 3163, Paduch, KY.—Vera Meyer

144, Maple Heights, O.—Part-timers Dawn Merrow and Helen Tegowski treated Manager Larry Hall and his wife to an employer appreciation dinner at a local inn.—Rose Toth

237, Elkhart, Ind.—A big welcome to Eleanor Schrock, delicatessen head.—Edna Volheim

276, Hazel Park, MI.—Welcome to Manager Albert Fravel and Trainee Mike Young. So long to Lucille Cathey who moved to Franklin, Tenn.—Diane Lisecki

280, Detroit, MI.—Everyone welcomes Manager John Curry from 123, Southfield, MI., and congratulates former manager, Jack Buros, on his recent promotion to 4177, St. Clair Shores, MI., as co-manager.—Josie Grillo

298 Staffer Celebrates 25th Service Anniversary

298, Cleveland, O.—Congratulations to Irene Sobieski who celebrated her 25th anniversary with Kresge. Lucky Sandy Pennant was the winner of a $1,000 raffle.—Evelyn Menesek

300, Warren, O.—Sad farewell to Manager Glemmeyer who transferred to store 47, Cincinnati, O. New manager is Herbert Linn.—Clara Rossi

312, Indianapolis, Ind.—Best of luck to Robert Coutine who was promoted to co-manager of 4438, Indianapolis, and to Assistant Bill McGee who is now merchandise manager at 4336, Indianapolis. Welcome to Manager Rex Delley.—Norma Stuart

310, Springfield, O.—Welcome to Manager Ken Anasch who is managing his first store. Farewells to Ron Guitard who transferred to 287, Dayton, O.—Debby Harry

323, Marion, O.—Welcome Manager Hand from 4123, Lake Charles, La. The new pharmacy department should be the most popular one in town.—Mae Jividen

344, Warren, MI.—Assistant Dan Rockman was a guest speaker on Kresge Careers at the local junior high. A hearty welcome to Linda Di Cenzo, Camille Prus, Ellen Coleman and Virginia Cuenzo.—Joyce Banasewski

378, Cleveland, O.—Welcome Trainee James Kresge. Thanks to Manager John McLaughlin for the lovely appreciation party.—Sue Coudige

404, Pontiac, MI.—Farewell to Assistant Tom Weber who transferred to 4086, Saginaw, MI. The store received a Basic Stock Achievement Award.—Gale Langford

410, Painesville, O.—Welcome to Manager Terry Rakich from 3015, Mentor, O., and good luck to Manager Albert Fravel upon his transfer to 276, Hazel Park, MI.—Thelma Hyduke

411, Cleveland, O.—Farewell to Assistant Gregory "Kilbase" Abramszyk now at 414, Akron, O.—Sheila Hornzyk

440, Midland, MI.—Welcome to Trainee Mel Hollandmooritz and welcome back to Gene Mann.—Marie Berry

453, Clawson, MI.—Kim Saunders has been chosen to go to Girls State and will attend a Rainbow Girls convention in Louisiana. Laura Stevens who plays in her high school band, participated in the state band festival.—Leila Bennett

455, Springfield, IL.—Good luck to former manager, Jerry Jacobson, who is now co-manager at 4280, Cedar Rapids, Ia. New manager is Glen Iakozon from 305, Chicago. Hi there to Trainee Judith Thompson.—Elizabeth Mavis

465, Grosse Pointe, MI.—Italian visitors who ate at the fountain thought it was the best food they had eaten since coming to the States. Best of luck to Assistant Robert Hatto who transferred to 4021, Southgate, MI.—Dorothy Anderson

485, Mishawaka, Ind.—Karen Lair has received her 15th first place trophy in the women's division of black belt karate competition. Congratulations to Robert Karlin upon his promotion.—Pearl Roscoe

488, Ann Arbor, MI.—A surprise dinner was given to Vera Goodnow who retired after 12 years of service to the company. Welcome to Manager Richard Kennon from 4580, Detroit.—Carol Cheever

493, Bedford, Ind.—Sad adios to Alan Storie, assistant, who transferred to store 217, Vincennes, Ind.—Marge Keithley

501, Southfield, MI.—Welcome Assistant Jim Shannon from store 123, Southfield. Stella Kampka was highly commended by a customer.—Ruth Belling

5018, Seven Hills, O.—Assistant and manager are holding an in-store sales contest. They are promoting the delicatessen to get the highest sales for a week.—Connie Neitmann

5018, Mentor, O.—Congratulations to Jerry Rakich who is now manager of 410, Painesville, O. Welcome Ross Rizzo, merchandise manager from 4417, Highland Heights, O.—Maggie Minnakoche

5098, Louisville, Ky.—Welcome to Assistant Charlene Beute and Herb Eisenbaum. For the 100th Run for the Roses, also known as the Kentucky Derby, plans have been made for the personnel to dress in costumes.—Vicky Reid

5014, Kokomo, Ind.—Welcome Manager John Norris.—William Whitely

5031, Wyandotte, MI.—Farewell and good luck to Linda Myers and Garry Lintner now at new store.—Lucille Hastings

5057, Detroit, MI.—Sad adios were bid to retirees Josephine Ciesinski and Johanna Barnett. Ray Nieman, Diane Walker and Ramona Stenes were winners in a regional diamond sales contest. Welcome Co-Manager Scott.—Helene Picham

5085, Anderson, Ind.—Even with four inches of snow and five degree weather, the patio department is in full swing for spring.—William Jess

5035, Saginaw, MI.—Good luck to William Lennox who was transferred to 4194, Cincinnati, O.—Linda Hoffman

5074, Southfield, MI.—Hi there to Co-manager Ron Kaalbac.—Lynn Frankland

5076, Evansville, Ind.—A hearty welcome to Co-Manager Joe Yanosy from store 56, Louisville, Ky.—Alison Morris

5077, Lexington, Ky.—Richard Logan, part-timer, finished in first place in the district for the vocational school program. He now competes against other district winners.—Dixie Hifter

5086, Monroe, MI.—The recent thank-you breakfast for all employees was a huge success, especially since the assistant managers did all the cooking.—Eliel Pump

508, Cambridge, O.—Employees got together for a dinner in honor of Leanna Rose who retired from the company.—Jim Brauch

508, Kokomo, Ind.—Dan McCutchen and Helen French were honored at a monthly breakfast.—Learna Boles

507, Richmond, Ind.—Welcome Assistant Douglas Hawkins from store 3, Columbus, O.—Iris Lairson

Frances Lubig Is Feted For 25 Years Service

650, Detroit, MI.—A breakfast and a luncheon were held in honor of the 25th anniversary of Francis Lubig. Trainee Leonard Zott was transferred to 300, Detroit, as assistant.—Donna Weber

670, St. Clair Shores, MI.—Everyone is overjoyed by the new Kresge policy of having a Saturday off each month.—Maybelle Jones

678, Westland, MI.—Good luck to Diane Tatum who transferred to 405, Inkster, MI., and to Dan Peterson who is now at 623, Plymouth, MI.—Lucy Lampman

696, Farmington, MI.—Welcome to Manager David Chomsky who is managing his first store. Best of luck to former trainee, Denise Felty, now at 2156, Belleville, MI.—Theresa Fether

6965, Cincinnati, O.—Sue Newell, Lillian Pollock, Nell McMillan, Linda Thatcher, Paul DeShane and Debbie Campbell were prize in the South-American contest. Farewell to Steven Buecher now at 123, Cincinnati.—Betty Stewart

6105, Toledo, O.—Farewell to Betty Faust who retired after 24 years with the company.—Vila Jacky

6105, Oregon, O.—Manager Ray Merritt was honored at a monthly potluck.—Ross Searl

6173, Cincinnati, O.—Management treated the breakfast at a monthly celebration.—Thomas Hamann

6182, Woodhaven, MI.—A breakfast was served to honor Tom Takacs and Harry Malish, both of whom were promoted to store manager. There was a bit of a commotion at the check-out when Supervisor Pat Rushlow bumped into a stranger passing through.—Bonnie Wilford

6194, Wyoming, O.—Madeline Kovat is one of the top bowlers of Cincinnati.—Janis Ryan

6335, Youngstown, O.—Best of luck to Assistant Dave Garbaron who transferred to 4385, Muncie, Ind.—Marlene Bonas

6940, Elkhart, Ind.—Everyone was surprised by a visit from the Oscar Mayer man and his famous car.—Cheryl Winchester

6965, Muncie, Ind.—Welcome to David Garbaron, operational manager, and good luck to Bonita Durrner who was promoted to millinery manager.—Elnora Peterbough

6984, Marion, Ind.—Manager Don Rohrer was honored at a monthly celebration.—Cathy Benedict

Best Photo Contest Is Successful at 4301

6301, Lima, O.—Diane Chen, Nancy Alenbach and Neddie Young were chosen as the employees with the prettiest pictures during a recent contest.—Marge Sandvorn

4326, Sterling Heights, MI.—Betty Lou Shortt was congratulated for her alertness after detecting a counterfeit bill.—Tom Snow

Employees at K mart 4006, Louisville, KY., anticipate the upcoming Kentucky Derby festivities by continuing in lively outfit.

4106 Employee Is Native of Thailand

4106, Ypsilanti, MI.—Samira Simmons is originally from Bangkok, Thailand and she displayed her native dance at a monthly party. Welcome Co-Manager Michael A'Hearn and James McCabe, operational manager, both from 465, Ann Arbor, MI.—Sandra Sallotte

4124, Terre Haute, Ind.—A farewell party was held for Paula Sheehan who transferred to Indianapolis as advertising coordinator.—Maxine Matherly

4330, Indianapolis, Ind.—Farewell to former assistant, Ken Anasch, who is now manager of 314, Springfield, O.—Jackie Caron

4363, Livonia, MI.—The annual men's fashion show was a big success. Welcome Assistant Paul Burke from 245, Lincoln Park, MI.—Marion Blackwell

4382, Lansing, MI.—A hearty welcome to Assistant Dave Eshchak, Ron Bayless and Steve Stebbins.—Margaret Weir

4431, Richmond, Ind.—Welcome Manager Tim McAlear, formerly from 4206, Warren, MI.—Betty Huth